

CURRICULUM DEVELOPMENT and LESSON PLANNING

In the Age of COVID and Remote Teaching/Learning (PART II)

January 4th, 2022 @ 4pm

Putting strategies discussed in Part I into action. You will leave this workshop able to create a curriculum framework on your own! Open to ANY teacher or administrator who wants to adapt CTE and business curriculum/lessons in the digital space!

Ms. Tandra Birkett, an education consultant and curriculum developer having 30+ years of NYCDOE experience, will be providing BTA members with engaging and illuminating methodologies while introducing a potential professional pathway for teachers to use beyond the classroom.

The Business Teachers Association of New York State (BTANYS) provides advocacy, professional development, networking, and support for its members to effectively educate today's students for tomorrow's global economy." Our organizational vision is "Advocacy, professional growth opportunities, networking and college, career and civic readiness."
